TF® Gutta Percha Points

The latest addition to our TF product line is now available. TF Gutta Percha Points are designed to fit the TF apical file preparations to provide a system based approach.

Significant clinical trials on extracted teeth, as well as on live cases and bench testing were used to confirm the fit of these points with the appropriate size of TF file. As with any gutta percha, differences based on the clinician's technique and patient anatomy may require occasional adjustments to fit. However, our trials have shown that these will fit the appropriate TF prep the vast majority of the time.
